Healthy Environment

TUESDAY

Arrival 15-30 mins  Creet learners individually.  Health check  Morning Circle IO-15 mins  Work Time Activities 30-35 mins  Literacy focus Learners place to say semething.  Literacy focus Learners place to say semething.  Life Orientation/Creative focus Learners place appear plate blue. When dry the make a green hand print in the middle of the plate. They can decorate the edge with some more green. They will bring this to Morning Circle tomorrow.  Small Group Time Activity IO-15 mins  Literacy focus Learners paint a papear plate blue. When dry the make a green hand print in the middle of the plate. They can decorate the edge with some more green. They will bring this to Morning Circle tomorrow.  Learners paint a papear plate blue. When dry the make a green hand print in the middle of the plate. They can decorate the edge with some more green. They will bring this to Morning Circle tomorrow.  Learners paint a papear plate blue. When dry the make a green hand print in the middle of the plate. They can decorate the edge with some more green. They will bring this to Morning Circle tomorrow.  Learners paint a papear plate blue. When dry the make a green hand print in the middle of the plate. They can decorate the edge with some more green. They will bring this to Morning Circle tomorrow.  Learners paint a papear plate blue. When dry the first one counting with learners to use their number: Learners do use a first one of the first one of the first one their number. They will be some papear plate blue. They are considered the first of the plate first one of the first
Morning Circle IO-15 mins  Work Time Activities 30-35 mins  Literacy focus Learners pick up toothpicks using alothes pegs.  Life Orientation/Creative focus Learners paint a paper plate blue. When dry the make a green hand print in the middle of the plate. They can decorate the edge with some more green. They will bring this to Morning Circle tomorrow.  Small Group Time Activity IO-15 mins  Literacy focus Learners count to IO alapping their hands. (For tips on counting with learners count of the edge with some more green. They will bring this to Morning Circle tomorrow.  Learners count to IO alapping their hands. (For tips on counting with learners to use their number and arrange them in order. Hold up a number word flash card. e.g. five and have learners place a button on the numeral.  Tidy up time  And washing  Snack time  Play Musical Bumps. Learners dance around while music plays. When the music stops, they sit down as fast as possible. The last learner to sit, is out of the game. Continue until there is a winner.  Include the activity below as one of your daily outdoor activities.  In this game. Stand Up, Sit Down', the learners begin seated on the floor. Describe a season and then name it. You may name it incorrectly—in which case the learners have to sit down. If you name the season correctly the learners stand up. For instance, say: The sun is shining brightly and it is hot. It is Winter! This is a good listening and concentration exercise.	•		Greet learners individually.
Work Time Activities 30-35 mins  Literacy focus Learners pick up toothpicks using clothes pegs.  Life Orientation/Creative focus Learners paint a paper plate blue. When dry, the make a green hand print in the middle of the plate. They can decorate the edge with some more green. They will bring this to Morning Circle tomorrow.  Small Group Time Activity IO-IS mins  Literacy focus Learners count to IO clapping their hands. (For tips on counting with learners, refer LSF, Counting). Revise the numbers I-7. Ask learners to use their number card out outs and arrange them in order. Hold up a number word flash card, e.g. five and have learners place a button on the numeral.  Tidy-up time  Tidy-up time  Nusic and Movement Ring  Play Musical Bumps. Learners dance around while music plays. When the music stops, they sit down as fast as possible. The last learner to sit, is out of the game. Continue until there is a winner.  Include the activity below as one of your daily outdoor activities.  In this game, "Stand Up, St. Down", the learners bagin seated on the floor. Describe a season and then name it. You may name it incorrectly—in which case the learners have to sit down. If you name the season correctly the learners stand up. For instance, say: The sun is shining brightly and it is hot. It is Winter!' This is a good listening and concentration exercise.	+	Health check
Activities 30-35 mins  Learners pick up toothpicks using clothes pegs.  Life Orientation/Creative focus Learners paint a paper plate blue. When dry, the make a green hand print in the middle of the plate. They can decorate the edge with some more green. They will bring this to Morning Circle tomorrow.  Literacy focus Learners count to IO clapping their hands. (For tips on counting with learners are fer LSF. Counting). Revise the numbers I-7. Ask learners to use their number card cut outs and arrange them in order. Hold up a number word flash card, e.g. five and have learners place a button on the numeral.  Tidy-up time  Music and Movement Ring  Play Musical Bumps. Learners dance around while music plays. When the music stops, they sit down as fast as possible. The last learner to sit, is out of the game. Continue until there is a winner.  Include the activity below as one of your daily autdoor activities.  In this game. Stand Up. Sit Down', the learners begin seated on the floor. Describe a season and then name it. You may name it incorrectly—in which case the learners have to sit down. If you name the season correctly the learners stand up. For instance, say: The sun is shining brightly and it is hot. It is Winter!' This is a good listening and concentration exercise.
Time Activity IO-15 mins  Learners count to IO clapping their hands. (For tips on counting with learners, refer LSF, Counting). Revise the numbers I-7. Ask learners to use their number card cut outs and arrange them in order. Hold up a number word flash card, e.g. five and have learners place a button on the numeral.  Tidy-up time  Music and Movement Ring  Play Musical Bumps. Learners dance around while music plays. When the music stops, they sit down as fast as possible. The last learner to sit, is out of the game. Continue until there is a winner.  Include the activity below as one of your daily outdoor activities.  In this game, 'Stand Up, Sit Down', the learners begin seated on the floor. Describe a season and then name it. You may name it incorrectly—in which case the learners have to sit down. If you name the season correctly the learners stand up. For instance, say: 'The sun is shining brightly and it is hot. It is Winter!' This is a good listening and concentration exercise.		Activities	Learner's pick up toothpicks using clothes pegs.  Life Orientation/Creative focus  Learner's paint a paper plate blue. When dry, the make a green hand print in the middle of the plate. They can
Hand washing  Snack time  Music and Movement Ring  Play Musical Bumps. Learners dance around while music plays. When the music stops, they sit down as fast as possible. The last learner to sit, is out of the game. Continue until there is a winner.  Include the activity below as one of your daily outdoor activities.  In this game, 'Stand Up, Sit Down', the learners begin seated on the floor. Describe a season and then name it. You may name it incorrectly—in which case the learners have to sit down. If you name the season correctly the learners stand up. For instance, say: 'The sun is shining brightly and it is hot. It is Winter!' This is a good listening and concentration exercise.		Time Activity	Learners count to IO clapping their hands. (For tips on counting with learners, refer LSF, Counting). Revise the numbers I-7. Ask learners to use their number card cut outs and arrange them in order. Hold up a number
Snack time  Music and Movement Ring  Play Musical Bumps. Learners dance around while music plays. When the music stops, they sit down as fast as possible. The last learner to sit, is out of the game. Continue until there is a winner.  Include the activity below as one of your daily outdoor activities.  In this game, 'Stand Up, Sit Down', the learners begin seated on the floor. Describe a season and then name it. You may name it incorrectly — in which case the learners have to sit down. If you name the season correctly the learners stand up. For instance, say: 'The sun is shining brightly and it is hot. It is Winter!' This is a good listening and concentration exercise.		Tidy-up time
Music and Movement Ring  Play Musical Bumps. Learners dance around while music plays. When the music stops, they sit down as fast as possible. The last learner to sit, is out of the game. Continue until there is a winner.  Include the activity below as one of your daily outdoor activities.  In this game, 'Stand Up, Sit Down', the learners begin seated on the floor. Describe a season and then name it. You may name it incorrectly — in which case the learners have to sit down. If you name the season correctly the learners stand up. For instance, say: 'The sun is shining brightly and it is hot. It is Winter!' This is a good listening and concentration exercise.		Hand washing
Movement Ring  as possible. The last learner to sit, is out of the game. Continue until there is a winner.  Include the activity below as one of your daily outdoor activities.  In this game, 'Stand Up, Sit Down', the learners begin seated on the floor. Describe a season and then name it. You may name it incorrectly—in which case the learners have to sit down. If you name the season correctly the learners stand up. For instance, say: 'The sun is shining brightly and it is hot. It is Winter!' This is a good listening and concentration exercise.	ď	Snack time
In this game, 'Stand Up, Sit Down', the learners begin seated on the floor. Describe a season and then name it. You may name it incorrectly—in which case the learners have to sit down. If you name the season correctly the learners stand up. For instance, say: 'The sun is shining brightly and it is hot. It is Winter!' This is a good listening and concentration exercise.	IJ
Story Time  Ask learners to retell the story that they made up yesterday.		Outdoor Play	In this game, 'Stand Up, Sit Down', the learners begin seated on the floor. Describe a season and then name it. You may name it incorrectly — in which case the learners have to sit down. If you name the season correctly the learners stand up. For instance, say: 'The sun is shining brightly and it is hot. It is
		Story Time	Ask learners to retell the story that they made up yesterday.

